

PLN 1: Literacy For School Leaders Online

PreK-12 (EDCE 649)

Semester/Dates: Fall 2019 (September 5, 2019-December 13, 2019)

Facilitator: Dr. Mike McKenna

Tuition: $1,950 (*Participants are responsible for purchasing the required texts.)

All participants earn 4.5 Graduate Credits

PA Educators earn 60 ACT 45/PIL hours*

PLN1: Literacy for School Leaders integrates leadership standards, change theories, and literacy strategies to increase student engagement and improve student achievement. Participants learn approaches to help them establish literate school environments that are grounded in problem solving, critical thinking, and logical reasoning concepts that are focused on state and national standards. They employ practical techniques that investigate and connect content in all subject areas to the real world. Administrators learn to foster professional learning communities that increase the intelligence of their organizations.

Register Online by August. 1st:
<http://tinyurl.com/gv698ol>
Email:
gsepennlit@pobox.upenn.edu
 with any questions, and to inform us that you have registered.

To purchase the course texts:

The Plainer Truths: <http://amzn.to/2b565IM>
 Activate: <https://www.hmhco.com/shop/k12/ACTIVATE/9781935588115>

www.gse.upenn.edu/pln

@PennLitNetwork

Penn Literacy Network

This course is being offered by The University of Pennsylvania's Graduate School of Education through The Penn Literacy Network. The course is 4.5 continuing education graduate credits and is one semester in length. The course takes place in an online format using Schoology. Participants must obtain a Penn Key through the University to access all university systems.*